

Diversity of Ministries

lundi 21 décembre 2015, par Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny

The Sisters of Saint Joseph of Cluny, of different races, nations, languages and cultures, united in the same fidelity to the Will of God who wills the salvation of all, strive to help others to realise the fullness of their being.

We strive to accomplish this through :

- education
- pastoral ministry
- health care
- promotion of the human person

Following in the footsteps of Anne-Marie Javouhey, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny continue the work she began.

With a passion for God and respectful for each person's human dignity, we share in the mission of the Church. Attentive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, we offer an education which has 'liberation' as its goal, helping to develop the whole person.

Global Concerns

As an international congregation ministering around the world, we find ourselves true citizens of a global village. In response to this reality, during the General Chapter of 2012, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny made a commitment to the following global challenges :

- Lack of faith and hope
- The family
- The slavery of our time
- The ecological crisis

Each of these challenges holds an important place in our lives and in our ministries.
